A Little of Everything. Lent begins to-day. This is Ash Wednesday. Don't miss seeing "Robinson Crusoe" at the Reynolds opera house Monday night. Twins—boy and girl—were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Penhall at Rathmel Monday night. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. King entertained a number of friends at six o'clock dinner Saturday evening. Miss Ella Doyle, of near Smothport, McKean county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hamilton, in this place. Laird G. Spencer, an employee of the Punxsutawney News, was the guest of W. J. Weaver over Sunday. A. Silberman, of New York City, vice-president of the Enterprise Silk Company, is in town this week. Willis Hoon, who resides at Monesson, son of Mrs. J. A. Hoon of Reynoldsville, is down with typhoid-pneumonia. Rev. Boyd, who will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday is not a candidate for the pastorate of that church. Calogero Muncello and Arachela Vaccaro, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street last Saturday, February 21st. Farmers' institute will be held in the Grange Hall in Paradise on Friday and Saturday of this week. See program on first page of THE STAR. George W. Coromeser had the large finger of his left hand badly lacerated recently while at work in the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's mill. The ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic church held a festival in the Nolan block on Saturday and Monday evenings. They cleared over $35.00. Albert Cochran left here last Friday afternoon for Valdosta, Georgia, where he will join Harris Nickle-Plate Show and will travel with it during the summer. Washington's Birthday, February 22, fell on Sunday this year and Monday, February 23rd, was observed as a legal holiday. It was observed here by the postmaster. The L. O. O. F. degree team of Reynoldsville drove to Brookville Wednesday evening and did some degree work in the L. O. O. F. lodge at that place. After lodge was out the visitors were given a fine banquet.

Rev. A. F. Boyd, of Limestone, Pa., will preach in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church next Sunday. Miss Anna Lawton, trimmer for Miss Frances Sayers, went to Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday to see the latest styles in millinery and buy new spring goods. James Hughes, Thomas O'Hare and Francis McDonald were at Hughes' camp over at Mill Creek last week fox hunting, but they did not succeed in killing any of the carnivorous animals. Charles Eisenbath returned from Pittsburgh last week, where he had been to see an uncle, George Moses, who was thrown off a wagon and was seriously injured. His back was broken and left arm broken in two places. Thomas Haggerty, of this place, National Organizer for U. M. W. of A., froze both his ears very badly Wednesday evening of last week while walking from National Hotel to his home on Pleasant Avenue. Charles Burge, an employee in the Reynoldsville Woolen Co. mills at this place, had his right hand badly injured last week by having hand caught in a machine. Charles came very near losing two fingers. Thirty-five members of the Protected Home Circle of Reynoldsville attended a banquet at Anita Monday evening given by the Protected Home Circle of Anita. The Reynoldsville people went to Anita on the trolley line. A number of the silk mill girls held a dance in Frank's pavilion last Thursday night, members of the dancing class held a dance in pavilion Monday night and another crowd of young people held a dance at same place last night. Sub-District convention of the Epworth League will be held in the Reynoldsville M. E. church the last week in May. The program committee for this convention met at the M. E. parsonage in this place Monday afternoon. "Robinson Crusoe" Co. which will appear at the Reynolds opera house on next Monday night, March 2nd, is one of the largest and best attractions on the road and carry all the special scenery for a grand production. New songs and specialties will be introduced during the play. Programme for the Mothers' Club meeting to be held on Friday in Assembly hall at 3.30 p. m.: Recitation, Florence Elliott; Boys chorus from room 13; Recitation, Marion Booth; subject for discussion, "Adjustments of Difficulties between Parents and Teachers" opened by Miss Dalley. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Last Friday afternoon the public schools observed Flag Day and Washington's Birthday. A programme of patriotic selections was prepared and a large number of the patrons were present to hear those who were to take part in the exercises. The visitors seemed to be pleased with the effort of the schools to teach patriotism and true national pride. George Baehr, a glass-worker of Brookville, formerly of Reynoldsville, who was seriously ill for seven weeks as a result of two large abscesses on his hip, which had to be operated on, is able to be around again. Mr. Baehr was unable to walk for three weeks only by the assistance of his wife and daughter, Margaret. There was a mistake in the High School Bulletin editorial staff that appeared in THE STAR last week. It should have been, Miss Helena Black editor, Will Reynolds and Lawson Reed assistant editors, Miss Jennie McGaw local editor, instead of Miss Nulu Nenie editor, John Coleman and Claude Hamilton assistant editors, and Miss Golda King local editor. A number of members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of Brookville will visit the Reynoldsville I. O. O. F. lodge next Saturday evening and will bring several candidates with them for the Reynoldsville Degree Team to give them the "Royal Bumpers." After the Degree Team "got" has been tied up the Daughters of Rebekah will serve lunch for the visitors and Reynoldsville members. There were two errors in the election returns published in THE STAR last week. One error was in D. H. Breaker's vote for auditor in Reynoldsville borough. He got 203 votes instead of 136, as reported. The mistake was made by a member of election board in first precinct giving wrong figures. The other mistake was in H. L. Hoke's vote for clerk of Winslow township. The vote in each precinct was correct but the total was 39 votes shy of what it should have been. Mr. Hoke was elected township clerk instead of Ed. Raber. Mrs. Robert Norris, who has been visiting her son, Dr. R. W. Norris, at Waynesburg, and a daughter at Allegheny for several months, arrived in Reynoldsville yesterday and is now at the home of her son, J. C. Norris, on Grant street. Mrs. Norris, who is well on in life's journey, did not hear the brakeman call out Reynoldsville and she went on to Falls Creek and returned to Reynoldsville on the next train. Mrs. J. C. Norris was at the station to meet Mother Norris, but she was sitting on opposite side of train and Mrs. J. C. did not see her.

Congregational Meeting. There will be a congregational meeting in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, March 4th, after prayer meeting, to vote on giving Rev. A. D. McKay a call to the pastorate of the church. Strickland-Butler Nuptials. F. P. Strickland, of Hopkins, and Mrs. Rachel Butler, of near Snow Shoe, Pa., were married at the latter place on Wednesday, February 18, 1903. Mrs. Butler was a sister of Mr. Strickland's first wife. Mr. Strickland and wife came to Hopkins Friday morning, where they will reside a short time at least. Cherub Gone. Martha Hoffman, age fifteen months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hoffman, died at 11.00 p. m. Saturday, February 21, 1903. Funeral service was held in the Catholic church at 3.00 p. m. Monday. Interment in Catholic cemetery. Martha was a bright and sweet little girl and up until she was about ten-months-old she was a chubby baby, but she got the measles and the last five months she was not a strong baby. Pneumonia was cause of her death. Killed by Train. N. B. Runyon, a shoemaker of New Bethlehem, was killed by a P. R. R. passenger train, Frank Richardson engineer, at New Bethlehem about three o'clock last Friday afternoon. Runyon was walking on the track and did not hear the train approaching. He was killed instantly. A few years ago Mr. Runyon had a shoe shop in Reynoldsville in the building now occupied by James Kempie at corner of Main street and R. & F. C. R'y. The deceased was a man about fifty years old. He is survived by his wife. Taken Back to Reformatory. Ed. McIntyre, who was sent to the Reformatory at Huntingdon from Clearfield county a couple of years ago, told the officials at Reformatory that there was small-pox in his father's family and made a plea to be allowed to return home to work to help support the family. On the strength of this statement Ed. was allowed to come to his home in this place. The officials learned that the statement was not correct and last week a warrant was sent to Reynoldsville and Constable George Warnick arrested Edward and took him back to the Reformatory. Three Years' Work. Last Sunday completed Dr. A. J. Meek's third year's work as pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, and they were three full and successful years. During that time Dr. Meek preached 527 sermons, conducted 87 funerals, performed 26 wedding ceremonies and added 104 persons to the membership of the church. Dr. Meek is a genial gentleman, an able and earnest preacher and his labors are meeting with merited success. He has an estimable wife who is a great help to him in the work. Evangelistic Meetings. Special evangelistic services are to be held in the Beechwoods Presbyterian church March 2nd to 13th, inclusive. Rev. Dr. Conway, of Brookville, is to preach the first week, and Rev. C. A. Clark, of Punxsutawney, the second. Prof. A. J. Mooney is to be present throughout the meetings and will have charge of the music. The Clarion Republican says of his singing in the Presbyterian church there: "He has a rich bass voice of wonderful compass. He interprets the feelings of the authentic of music and blends softness of tone with musical volume. His enunciation is excellent and his enthusiasm never fails to interest the audience." Railroaders Has Narrow Escape. Claude Truitt and wife, of Pittsburgh, returned to that city last week after two weeks' visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Truitt, in Reynoldsville. Claude is a brakeman in the Pittsburgh yards of River Division of P. R. R. and several weeks ago he had a narrow escape from instant death by falling in front of a moving car. He was putting on a brake when a kink in brake chain let loose and Claude fell. He fell between the rails or he would have been cut in two. As it was the brake beam came within an inch of his head. Claude was sufficiently injured to make it necessary for him to lay off work for two weeks and he came to Reynoldsville to visit his parents during that time. "Knives and Forks"—Fine Lecture. Last Friday evening Rev. J. Bell Neff delivered one of his popular lectures, "Knives and Forks," in Assembly hall at this place. Those who engaged Rev. Neff to lecture here that evening did not do so as a money making scheme, but in connection with an educational rally held here Friday evening and Saturday, hence the price of admission was set at the small sum of 15 cents, but it was not a cheap lecture by odds, in fact there have been 50 cent lectures in Assembly hall that were not as fine as the lecture delivered by Rev. Neff Friday evening. The lecture was full of beautiful thought, wit humor and pathos. It was highly enjoyed by those present. $1.00 underwear for 70c at Millirens.

PAUL KIRK DEAD. Typhoid Fever was Cause of Demise—Funeral Yesterday. Paul Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kirk, of this place, died in Allegheny City Saturday afternoon, February 21, 1903, from typhoid fever. Mrs. Kirk and daughter, Miss Frances Kirk, were at Paul's bedside when he expired, having been called to Allegheny City a week before he died. The body was brought to home of parents on the 1.20 p. m. train over B. & P. Monday. Funeral service was held at residence at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery. Paul was born at West Middlesex, Mercer county, Pa., June 1, 1875, making him 27 years, 8 months and 20 days old at time of death. Most of Paul's life was spent in Reynoldsville and he was well known to many of our citizens. Paul was working in a machine shop in Allegheny City when he was stricken with fever. Besides the parents and brothers and sisters, Paul is survived by his wife and two children. The Literary Contest. As announced in these columns a week or two ago the members of the Senior classes of the High schools of Brookville, Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville are preparing to hold a literary contest at this place on the evening of March 20. Each school will furnish an essay, an oration, a recitation and the arguments of a debater. One musical selection will be given by each high school. The music, however, will not be regarded as a part of the contest, but merely to give variety to the programme. The principals of the three schools mentioned above have made this arrangement in order to bring our schools into closer touch and for the purpose of encouraging honest and laudable efforts in literary work. Fever Epidemic. On account of the typhoid fever epidemic at Ithaca, N. Y., Raymond E. Brown, student in Cornell University in that city, came to his home in this place last week. There are 350 cases of typhoid fever in Ithaca and new cases developing every day. About 800 Cornell students have left the city. Impure drinking water is cause of the epidemic. President Schurman, of Cornell University, offered the council of Ithaca $150,000 to provide a system of filtration. The offer has been accepted. Clement Flynn a Speech Maker. The annual banquet of the students in Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., was held last Friday evening. There were 250 of the members and faculty present. Among the speakers for the occasion was Clement Flynn, of Reynoldsville. The Carlisle Daily Herald, in a report of the banquet said: "Mr. Flynn, of the middle class of the Law School, represented his class. His address was short but brilliant and the applause extended at the conclusion was well deserved." There are people who have attended church when the gospel hit them so hard that they thought the preacher was striking straight at them, but he was not. The same thing applies to newspapers sometimes. Occasionally we hear of some person getting mad about an item that appeared in THE STAR, which they thought was intended especially for them, when the editor never thought of the person at all. We may find it necessary sometimes to hew close to the line and if the people get hit with the chips it is their fault. On account of the unsafe condition of the bridge over Solder Run, near Jefferson Supply Company store, the trolley cars do not run over the bridge, but stop at south end of bridge. When the bridge is repaired the cars will run down Jackson street. It is only a matter of time until this entire community will be convinced that Millirens are the lowest priced merchants. Bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, penmanship, spelling, reading and arithmetic taught at evening sessions in Reynoldsville Business College. Students can enter any time. Six month term. Just a few overcoats left at Millirens that will go at almost half price. Johns & Thompsons, tailors of Reynoldsville, are agents for the Punxsutawney Dyeing and Cleaning works. All kinds of work done, all work guaranteed. If you are in need of underwear to peice the winter out visit Millirens. A stock of gas fixtures, that is surprising for fine quality and good workmanship just received; prices is one of the selling points; at Albrigh's, the plumber. Remember that it means a saving of 25 per cent by dealing at Millirens. John H. Doubles, butterine dealer, East Main st., has just received 1,000 pounds of fine butterine which he is selling at 22 cents per pound. $1.00 underwear for 70c at Millirens.

Trial of Jesus from a Lawyer's Standpoint. The Chautauqua audience was conquered by W. M. Chandler, the silver-tongued orator, last night. The Chautauqua audience is, by the way, so experienced and critical that it means much to win its favor. It has listened to the speakers of a six week's session, and the speaker's standard must indeed be high who manages to please. Mr. Chandler did all this in a superlative degree. His delivery was impressive, at times impassioned, and continually pleasing. His presentation of cold, hard logic, clothed in forcible, faultless rhetoric, was convincing and decisive.—Boulder Camera. Famous orators and men of letters have spoken before the Texas-Colorado Chautauqua during the two years of its existence at Boulder—Henry Watterston, Dewitt Talmage, Wendling, John Dewitt Miller, Bryan, Gov. Thomas, Father Malone, and many others have poured their eloquence over the heads and into the hearts of thousands of listeners, but last evening Walter M. Chandler, a young but eloquent attorney, electrified the auditorium with a speech which ranks him among them as a brilliant orator.—Denver Post. Hon. Walter M. Chandler will be here March 6th. "He is one of the most charming speakers on the American platform." He never fails to please his audience and it is not probable Reynoldsville will be an exception. The plot of Assembly Hall for this lecture will be put up at H. Alex Stoko's drug store next Saturday morning, Feb. 28. Preached His Inaugural Sermon. The inaugural sermon of the new minister of the Presbyterian church of Urbana, the Rev. W. Frank Reber, was listened to by a large congregation the weather considered yesterday. He took for his text, I King, Chapter 3, Verse 9: "Give therefore, thy servant an understanding heart, to judge Thy people that I may discern between good and bad." The minister spoke of the great wisdom of Solomon and said he hoped that God would give him wisdom and strength to properly teach his congregation the great truths of the Bible. At the close of the service the entire congregation pressed forward to greet their pastor and give him every assurance of their good wishes and hearty co-operation and assistance while he labored among them.—Springfield Press-Republic. Warning to Other Boys. Four lads from Big Soldier were arraigned before Squire E. Neff at this place Monday evening on a charge of willfully making, or causing to be made, loud, boisterous and unseemly noise or disturbance to the annoyance of the peaceable residents nearby, contrary to the law. Carlo Mascaro, who has a barbershop at Big Soldier, was the plaintiff. The boys were glad to settle the case for $18.00, or $4.50 apiece. These boys will likely behave themselves in the future and not try to annoy other people. There are some boys in Reynoldsville that had better take warning from the experience of the Big Soldier boys. Plain Facts. The question is often asked, "Why is it that such places as Sharon, Donora and other towns succeed so well in growth and population?" The answer is not far to seek. It is because the business men of those towns get together and work unitedly and not jealously for the good of the town. A town can never be better than its people make it. If the people are slow, selfish and miserly a town will never get out of its rut until funerals put the reins of finance in younger hands.—Clearfield Public Spirit. The above plain facts apply to more towns than Clearfield. Burgesses Elected. There are eleven boroughs within the limits of Jefferson county and there was a Burgess elected in each borough last week excepting Worthville. Following is a list: Big Run, U. S. Hoffer; Brookville, E. B. Covil; Brookville, B. E. Irvan; Clayville, Harry Simpson; Corsica, A. A. Smith; Falls Creek, W. S. Rishel; Punxsutawney, J. L. Shields; Reynoldsville, L. M. Simmons; West Reynoldsville, Wm. M. Borge, sr.; Summersville, T. A. Eshelman. Remarkable Fact. Joseph Reed, of this place, now seventy-two years old, spent all of last week with his daughter, Mrs. John Yonowine, at Bloomington Mine, and the remarkable part of it is that this is the first time Mr. Reed was ever away from his home for even one night since he established his own home many years ago. Where can another man be found at the age of 72 years that never spent one night away from his home? This is the time of year that Millirens demoralize competition by slashing prices. John Doubles sells butterine. Overcoats from $2.50 up at Millirens. Typewriters for sale or rent. Inquire Reynoldsville Business College. Bran, middlings and corn chops at wholesale at Reynoldsville Mills. Children's coats at Millirens at a bargain.

Local Institute. The institute of Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township district, held in Assembly hall was a success. Friday evening Rev. J. Bell Neff gave a very able and interesting lecture on "Knives and Forks." February 21, Saturday morning, the session was called to order by Prof. C. V. Smith. Prof. Smith was elected chairman, Miss Meek secretary. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. W. Myers of the Lutheran church. The first topic discussed was "Busy Work" by Miss Ethel Stuchell; general discussion followed in which many took part. Hon. S. B. Elliott gave a very fine address on "Forestry." It was stated by him that at the present rate of destruction of timber that in thirty-five or forty years the United States and Canada will be stripped of their forests. The last topic of the morning session, "Our Schools as a Factor in the Government of Children," was well discussed by Dr. A. J. Meek in which he showed that the teacher's influence extends into our homes. Institute adjourned to meet at 1.30 p. m. "Nature Study" was the first topic discussed in the afternoon by Miss Lillie Lenker and others. Rev. Perry A. Reno gave a very excellent talk on "Observation and Education." Prof. Lenker gave a very good practical talk on "Incorrect English." The statement was made that incorrect language can only be overcome by constant repetition of correct forms. The last topic, "Incentives to Progress," was discussed by our worthy County Superintendent Teitrick in a very able manner. The exercises were interspersed with excellent music by the school children and ladies' quartette. The institute was quite well attended. Election to be Contested. We have been informed that there will be a contest on the result of the election in Winslow townships for school directors, as returned by the election board. There was no specification on the ticket as to length of term for Republican candidates, but there was a specification as to length of term for Democratic candidates, and that is the grounds taken for the contest. The case will be presented to Judge Reed this week. The School Laws and Decisions of Pennsylvania says: "When all the tickets are without specification of the term, the latter part of XLIV provides a remedy. In such case the rule of the longest term to the highest in vote applies. But, if some of the tickets polled have, and some have not, this specification on their face, unless there was a common understanding among the voters in regard to the length of term intended for the candidates, respectively, those which have not are to be rejected, and the return is only to be given, according to number of votes, to those whose tickets specified the term on their faces." In case of a contest the law says: "If the legality of any election for directors be contested in writing by not less than ten qualified citizens of the district, the said court of quarter sessions is hereby authorized and required forthwith, to examine into the election, and to confirm or set aside, as shall seem just and proper, and, if set aside, to order a new election at the usual place in the usual manner, on not less than two weeks public notice, given by the proper officers." Think of It? Who would neglect to leave a bank account to his widow and family when a small effort on the husband's part would place from $500 to $3,000 to their credit at an average of less than $1.00 a month. The Protected Home Circle will help you do it. Arthur Gourley, of Yatesboro, member of Sharpville Circle No. 3, of Sharpville, Pa., died after an illness of only five days, aged 26 years. Had been a member of the Circle only two years and had paid into Circle 66 cents per month during that time. His widow will be paid $1,000. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for the week ending Feb. 21, 1903: Miss Maud Snyder, Chas. L. Lawton, Robert Weaver. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. E. C. BURNS, P. M. Card of Thanks. We wish to extend our thanks to our friends who kindly assisted us during the burial of our little child, Martha. MR. AND MRS. C. F. HOFFMAN. Read Millirens muslin underwear ad.
